Weather Forecast.

For North Carolina—Fair Friday and Saturday, warmer Saturday, diminishing northeast winds on the coast.

A Republican exchange says: "President Roosevelt's life policy is honesty." Don't look like the big insurance companies issue any policies like that.

President McCurdy, of the Mutual Life, refuses to tender his resignation. The country will also refuse its resignation to the doings of the insurance high-way much-a-mucks.

With the returns at our command we do not see that the advent of "The Clansman" has caused any additional bloodshed or riots in the South either by whites or blacks.

"Few girls keep up their music after they are married," remarks the New York Sun. Well that's no sign that the girls are quitters. They expect their husbands to come to time with bank notes.

A vigorous fight is now being made against openwork stockings. This is a subject which should be treated delicately but like as not some editors will wade in and handle openwork stockings with gloves off.

That was a fine, conservative speech the President made to the negro students of Tuckegee Institute. He handled the race question with consummate tact; and there is not a line of the speech that is distasteful to the South.

Atlanta now has four daily newspapers and a fifth is threatened. Oh! that's nothing. Wilmington, with less than one-third the population of Atlanta, has four daily papers, and all the owners are wearing purple and fine linen.

There is talk of changing the schedule on the Carolina Central railroad so that the train now leaving here at 7 o'clock A. M. will leave an hour later. If the interests of the people are consulted that train will be scheduled to leave Wilmington at 6 A. M., an hour earlier than now.

—There was only one case before the Mayor yesterday. A small colored boy, charged with fast driving around a down-town street corner, was warned and discharged on account of his youth.

—Commencing Friday, November 3, the Clyde line steamers, from New York, for this port will sail on Friday afternoon instead of on Saturday as heretofore, making the day of their arrival here 24 hours earlier.

—The health authorities are casting contented smiles and throwing bouquets at one another. Last year during September and October smallpox was on the rampage in the city. This year there is not a single case.

—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bordeaux will sympathize with them tenderly in the death of their infant daughter, Gracie, aged 10 months and 16 days, which occurred yesterday at the family home, 904 South Third street. The funeral will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in Bellevue.

—The police sergeants, captain and chief have received handsome gilded wreathes for their caps, indicating their rank. Now would it not be a good idea to have the rank of the janitors and other police officers at the hall defined in the same manner? It would look well and make a favorable impression on strangers visiting police headquarters.

—Charles W. Sullivan, a well known and highly respected colored man, died yesterday at his home, corner of Fifth and Harnett streets. He had been employed as a bottler by the Robert Portner Brewing Co., for 25 years and leaves a wife and six children. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence; thence to St. Stephen's church.

—Arrangements are being made for a most delightful Halloween entertainment. It is proposed to give the social affair for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the time will, of course, be next Tuesday, the eve of All Saints. The party will be given at night at the residence of Rev. Edward Wootten, on South Third street, and an enjoyable programme is being mapped out for the occasion.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Seitters Entertained on Tuesday Night.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Seitters entertained a party of friends at their residence on the Castle Haynes road in honor of the birthday of their sons, Carl Seitters, 16 years old, and Albert Seitters, 13 years of age. The decorations were in green and red. An elegant supper was served at midnight.

The guests present were as follows: Misses Katie Borneman, Lillie Borneman, Clara Borneman, Kate Gerdes, Katie Fick, Etta Fick, Mater Brunjes, Katie Behrends, Louisa Richters, Bertha, Wrede, Lillian Holland, Miss F. Chadwick, Annie Webb, Mrs. Martin Schnibben, Mrs. Genaust, Mrs. Ellers. Messrs. Haggert, Henry Wrede, John Hudson, Mrs. Lineker, Minnie Seitters, Fred. Seitters. Mr. and Mrs. Horne, Mr. and Mrs. Hanna. The guests enjoyed a pleasant evening and returned home a little after midnight.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "For the first time in the theatrical history of Fayetteville, so far as we know, an audience arose en masse and left the Opera House. This happened last night, just before the close of the second act in a play entitled Maloney's Wedding, which is also the title of the Company playing it, we suppose, as no other name appears. There was a good sized audience present, many of them were the most prominent citizens of the city. From the very start it was seen that the actors(?) were poor, but the audience, good naturedly, and with great patience and forbearance, took it in good part, hoping that something better would turn up. Instead, it went from bad to worse, and about the middle of the second act they could stand it no longer, and after drowning the actors'(?) voices with jeers and cat-calls, arose and left the house."

Rev. Mr. Oliver Called.

Mount Olive Tribune: "The members of the Mount Olive Baptist church in conference last Sunday morning, extended a call to Rev. W. B. Oliver, at present pastor of the First Baptist church at Florence, S. C., to the pastorate of the church here. We are informed that there is a strong probability that the call will be accepted as physicians have advised Mr. Oliver to give up city work on account of his health and accept a charge where the duties will not be so great."

THE NEW STREET LAW

Objections In Behalf of Abutting Property Ownrrs on Grace Street Withdrawn

THE QUESTION OF SIDEWALKS

Ordinance Prescribing Kind of New Sidewalks to Be Laid in Various Sections Agreed to and Attorney Authorized to Draft It.

The trouble of the city authorities over the ambiguity of the language of the new street law vanished like the morning dew before a radiant sun at a special conference of the Board of Aldermen held last night in the Mayor's office at the City Hall. The conference was open and representatives of the press with others were invited to seats in the room. Mayor Waddell, City Attorney Marsden Bellamy and all the Aldermen were present except Messrs. O'Brien and W. E. Yopp, the two absentees having found it impossible to attend as they expected.

The Mayor stated the object of the meeting and noted the presence of Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, who was extended the courtesy of the floor. Judge Bryan said he came to the conference by invitation as counsel for Mr. C. W. Worth, of the Worth Company, one of the two abutting property owners on the section proposed to be improved at foot of Grace street. He said that the technical point involved in the language of the act, in his opinion, was perfectly tenable and the assessment of any pro rata cost of the improvement upon the property owners could, he thought, be successfully resisted, but his client had no disposition to antagonize any public improvement. Objection had been entered at first on account of a misappresension that the sidewalks were to be widened to 15 feet and the abutting property owners were to be charged the whole cost of the macadam, whereas it had since developed that the city only proposed to require the payment of only the difference between the cost of macadam and the Belgian block pavement. Judge Bryan said if such was the case, and he was assured that it was and that the assessment would be reasonable, Mr. Worth would enter no objection. That statement vanished all apprehension on the part of the Aldermen and the matter was dismissed.

Alderman W. H. Yopp, who was on the Streets and Wharves Committee of the last administration when the act was drafted for passage by the Legislature, said that the draft of the law was very carefully examined and he was of the opinion that it had been passed upon by the Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy in addition to the then city attorney. He was doubtful if the alleged ambiguity would be fatal to the true meaning of the act and suggested that a friendly suit be made up, outside of present contingencies to determine the matter. The suggestion of Mr. Yopp may later be adopted and the court may be asked for an interpretation of the law as it stands.

Alderman E. F. Johnson brought up the matter of sidewalks when the conference was feverish to adjourn. Mr. King's motion at the last meeting, prescribing a limit in which granolithic pavements are required to be laid, was brought up and discussed. It provides that in the territory bounded by west side of Water and Nutt, east side of Third, north side of Red Cross and south side of Orange street, when new sidewalks are deemed necessary by the Streets and Wharves Committee, that the owners be required to lay the same anew with granolithic or like material. Mr. Johnson favored extending the sidewalk improvement all over the city as far east as Eighth street where permanent or macadam streets have been placed. The material may be brick where macadam and stone curbing has been placed, but it must be granolithic in all parts of the city where more permanent pavements are laid with stone curbing. The idea seemed to meet with the approval of those present, though no action was recognized as binding, and City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., was directed to prepare and submit to the next meeting of the Aldermen an ordinance covering the wishes of the Aldermen as expressed in the conference.

Mr. Bellamy called attention to the fact that the new law provides for the sidewalks to be laid by the owners "by resolution of the Board of Aldermen" and he is doubtful if the power can be delegated to the Streets and Wharves Committee to say just when sidewalks need repair or whether new ones will have to be built outright. However, he said he would look into the law very carefully and would endeavor to draw the proposed ordinance within the bounds of the law.

Wilder-Madden.

Invitations reading as follows were received in the city yesterday: "Mr. and Mrs. Durant H. Wilder request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Bevvie, to Col. John Boykin Madden, on Tuesday morning November the seventh at half-past ten o'clock, Grove Avenue Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia." Mr. Wilder, father of the bride-elect, is a brother of Mrs. A. M. Gilbert, of this city, and at one time lived here.

November Wedding.

The following invitations have been received by friends: "You are invited to be present at the marriage of Fredericka A. J. Marten to Henry W. K. Habenicht, Wednesday evening, November the Eighth, Nineteen Hundred and five at half-past eight o'clock, St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Wilmington, N. C." Reception from nine to twelve o'clock, 618 Ann street, Wilmington, N. C.

MUTINEERS ATTACH SHIP

Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, two of the alleged mutineers on board the schooner Harry A. Berwind, which is now undergoing repairs at Skinner's marine railway in this city, through their attorneys George L. Peschau, Esq., and Messrs. MacRae & McRae yesterday attached the ship in the Federal Court for wages alleged to be due them as seamen. The amount claimed is $188 and the plaintiffs allege that the same is due them for services rendered on the last voyage of the ill-fated vessel.

The attachment was served yesterday morning by Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox and the owners of the vessel, who are represented by Messrs. John D. Bellamy & Son, are given until next Wednesday to answer the complaint. It is understood that the contention of the owners of the vessel will be that in case of mutiny at sea, the wages of all seamen who engage in the mutiny are forfeited. Adams and Sawyer claim that they were not parties to the mutiny and are therefore, entitled to their compensation. However, the question of whether they are mutineers will be determined in the United States Court when they go on trial for their lives with the negro Scott next week.

The attachment yesterday does not interfere with the progress of the repairs on the Berwind and when she is ready to go to sea, perhaps earlier, the owners may give bond and proceed.

ALDERMAN—COOPER.

Pretty Wedding at Indiantown, S. C., on Wednesday Afternoon.

Miss Esther Eloise Cooper, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, of Indiantown, S. C., and Mrs. George Alfred Alderman, of Wilmington, were married in Indiantown Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, by Rev. H. T. Darnall, pastor of the congregation. There were present a large assemblage of friends and relatives and the ceremony was a very pretty one indeed. The interior of the church was in white and gold, three wedding arches having spanned each of the two aisles down which the attendants came and over the middle tier of seats. The wedding marches were rendered by Mr. Alf. H. Yopp, of Wilmington, a programme of music having been rendered as the guests were assembling.

The bride wore a becoming costume of white chiffon over satin and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, tied with white tulle ribbon. She was attended by Miss Varina Feagle, of Newberry, S. C., as maid of honor, charmingly attired in yellow silk and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaids were Misses Alma B. Kelly, of Kingstree, S. C., Marie and Meca Cooper and Jennie McCutcheon. They wore white organdie and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The little ribbon girls were Misses Jacquelin Anderson, of Florence, S. C., and Grace Cooper, sister of the bride. The ringbearer was little Miss Jacquelin Cooper, sister of the bride.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. W. Frank Armfield, of Florence, S. C. The groomsmen were Messrs. W. Haskell Feagle, of Savannah; H. L. Graham, Wilmington; Frank E. Barron, Manning, S. C.; and John H. Cooper, of Indiantown.

After the ceremony a reception and elegant supper was served, after which the bride and groom left for the North for a bridal tour to Washington and Baltimore. They will arrive in this city Sunday evening and be at home at the residence of Mrs. Julia Alderman, on Grace street.

BAD LUMBER MILL NEGRO.

Terrified One of His Co-Laborers Who Rushed to Magistrate's Office.

A very badly frightened negro, Joe Sneed, rushed breathless into Justice Furlong's court yesterday morning and declared that one Ed. Hunter, also colored, had just threatened his life with a big pistol at the Cape Fear Lumber Co. The frightened negro told of the gleam of a 38-calibre pistol and his terror increased as he related the story. Justice Furlong bade him to be calm and in a few minutes Constable "Took" Savage was over the hills and at the scene of the trouble. Ed. Hunter, a rather inoffensive looking negro, was soon in court. He employed Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., to defend him in each of two charges for carrying a concealed "weepon" and an assault with the same upon the terror-stricken darkey. Upon a hearing of the case Hunter was found not guilty of the assault and his attorney submitted the case of carrying concealed weapons. He was bound to Superior Court under bond of $25.

At The Academy.

The Woods-Browning Stock Company is continuing to delight large audiences at the Academy of Music, the offering last night having been especially good. To-night "A Prisoner of War," a brand new bill to this city, will be given with a clever line of specialties. To-morrow, Saturday matinee will be played and a farewell performance will be given at night, presenting "Deadwood Dick." An ample supply of ammunition has been laid in and the gallery gods are notified to be present in large numbers. "Deadwood Dick" is essentially a Saturday night bill, but upon this occasion it will be put on with rather more of the startling realism and scenic effects.

Flag at Half Mast.

In memory of the late George W. Doyle, the large flag at the Armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry is at half mast. Mr. Doyle was on the reserve corps of the company and is pleasantly remembered by many of the active members of the command.

INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Daughter and Son of Mr. Z. W. Whitehead Thrown From Trap on Second Street

HORSE RAN THREE BLOCKS

A frightful runaway occurred yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock, on Second street, between Market and Orange. A horse attached to a trap, being driven by a small colored boy and in which were seated Master Wiley Whitehead and his sister, Miss Annie Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Whitehead, took fright at something near the home of the occupants of the vehicle and dashed down Second street, toward Market overturning the trap and throwing the occupants, except the colored driver, to the macadamized street, Miss Whitehead having been thrown out on Second, between Orange and Dock and Master Wiley Whitehead, between Dock and Market. The last named was but little injured but the young lady was more seriously hurt, suffering severe sprains and contusions about the limbs. Fortunately no bones were broken. As soon as she was thrown to the street Mr. Frank Herbst and others went to her assistance and very soon Dr. Burbank came from Mr. Whitehead's home where he had just made a professional call. Miss Whitehead was taken to her home and was reported last night as resting very well.

As the frightened animal dashed in to Market street, the colored boy, pressed close to the dashboard holding the reins for dear life, Charles Caroll, a negro about 35 years of age, attempted to stop the animal but was knocked down over a dray and suffered a severe scalp wound. He was unconscious for the time being and was taken into the Evening Dispatch office where Dr. C. T. Harper attended him and later sent him to the hospital in the ambulance. The wound was dressed by Dr. Akerman after which the patient went to his home.

The runaway horse was not stopped until he dashed into Davis' stables, on Market street.

ELKS' MINSTREL FETE.

Executive Committee Appointed—Initiation—Pool Tournament.

At last night's regular meeting of Wilmington Lodge of Elks, it was definitely decided to give the big minstrel fete for the benefit of the B. P. O. E. Charity Fund, and the following committee was authorized to conclude all the necessary arrangements, viz: Messrs. I. W. Solomon, chairman; C. W. Polvogt, H. J. Gerken, Dr. T. B. Carroll and Capt. Wm. F. Robertson. Already Secretary H. J. Gerken is in communication with the S. A. Grubb Minstrel Syndicate, of Chicago, and a contract will likely be closed with those people for the promotion of the enterprise and an elaborate costuming and stage outfit for the big production. The central committee will later appoint sub-committees and in a very short time will have the arrangements well under way.

The meeting of the lodge last night was marked by a larger attendance than usual and the successful initiation of several candidates. Owing to the length of the ceremonies attending the initiation the conclusion of the pool tournament had to be deferred until to-night. It will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will doubtless bring out a large number of players and interested spectators.

HEARING IN CARNIVAL CASE.

Confusion of Tongues Before Court Commissioner's Hearing Yesterday.

The taking of depositions for the plaintiff in the carnival attachment was completed before W. P. Gafford, Esq., commissioner of the court, at his office on Princess street, yesterday afternoon, hearings having been held from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 3 to 5:30 P. M. Eight witnesses all told gave in their testimony. One of them, a Syrian woman of the Oriental theatre company, had to testify through the medium of an interpreter. Josh Simon was called in to act in that capacity and the conversation, first in the native tongue of the witness and then in broken English, was very interesting. The depositions will be reported to the court when the case comes up for trial in the Superior Court, Dec. 4th.

At the hearing yesterday ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., of Bellamy & Bellamy, represented the defendant, and William J. Bellamy, Esq. and William M. Bellamy, of Hon. John D. Bellamy & Son, looked after the interests of the plaintiff.

THE CUMBERLAND FAIR.

Rain Did Not Interrupt Programme—Marshal's Parade, Etc.

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 26.—In spite of the rain the crowd attending the Fair to-day was estimated at between 3,000 and 4,000. This morning the marshal's parade along the principal streets and out to the grounds was a very creditable affair, including fair officials, distinguished guests, Lumber Bridge and Fayetteville military companies, public school and business floats and many other striking features. Gray's Creek captured first prize of $35 for the best school float; McPherson's, second of $25; Glendale, third, of $15; Eastover, fourth, of $10; Sunnyside, fifth, of $5, and Hope Mills, the consolation prize of $5. The Jr. O. U. A. M. won first prize for the best independent float; Mr. Preston Stamps for best decorated private vehicle and the Fayetteville Gas and Electric Co., the prize for the best advertising display.

In the rifle shoot between the Fayetteville and Lumber Bridge companies, Sergeant L. N. Currie, of Lumber Bridge, won the first prize with a score of 24 out of 25.

To-night the Fair german was danced in Williams' hall. To-morrow the parade of marshals will take place at 10:30 A. M.; the tournament will begin at 11:30 A. M. and the racing in the afternoon.

FELL DOWN ACADEMY STEPS.

Young Man From Country Severely Injured Last Night.

William Iredell Peacock, 26 years old, a young white man from Freeman's, Columbus county, suffered several contusions about the head and a broken wrist as the result of a fall down the steps from the third gallery of the Academy of Music last night just before the curtain dropped on the last act of the performance by the Woods-Browning Stock Company. Peacock had been drinking to some extent and became restless before the performance was over. A Mr. McKoy, who accompanied the young man, consented to leave the house with him and they had just started down when Peacock fell, tumbling down the steps for some distance. The accident was soon discovered by the Academy attaches and the injured man was immediately taken to the City Hall and medical aid summoned. Later he was sent to the hospital, but it was hard to tell the extent of his injuries because of his condition before the accident. It is not thought, however, that his injuries are serious.

ORIGINAL WASHINGTON BREAD.

New Baker at Warren's and Additional Equipment Installed.

Mr. P. H. Harris, of Washington, D. C., has arrived and taken charge of the bread department of R. F. Warren's bakery, No. 22 North Front street. The original Washington bread will be made a specialty of and served to both the wholesale and retail trade. Mr. Harris took charge of his new duties last night. He is a capable man of 20 years experience and comes to Wilmington highly recommended.

A new steam boiler of large capacity has just been installed at Warren's. The bakery is also equipped with a dry steam box of 1,000 loafs and Mr. R. F. Warren is able to take good care of all customers in his line.

MAY BE FATALLY HURT.

Jordan Hill, 24 or 25 years of age, a colored employe of the Angola Lumber Company, was caught between two heavy trucks of lumber at the mill early yesterday morning and so severely mashed through the chest that the injuries may result in his death. It was stated last night at the hospital to which he was removed soon after the accident, that he was doing very well but that it would be several days before he would be out of danger. Hill came here from South Carolina several weeks ago and has no relatives here.

For Injury at Theatre.

A special from Greensboro to the Raleigh Post says: "This afternoon in Guilford Superior court the jury in the damage suit of Annie G. Hardin vs. S. A. Schloss returned a verdict of five hundred and nine dollars for the plaintiff as damages for injuries received by falling down an elevator shaft at the Grand of which the defendant is lessee. The city of Greensboro was included originally as a defendant in the suit, but Judge Ward upon the conclusion of the testimony dismissed the action as to the city. Plaintiff sued for two thousand dollars."

REPUBLICAN COMICALITIES.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Charlotte Observer, which has a good eye for the ridiculous, makes this paragraphic remark:

"The Hendersonville man who has instituted suit to compel Republican leaders to carry out an alleged contract regarding the division of patronage has probably had little experience in practical Republican politics in North Carolina."

The man might have been one of those new recruits to the Republican party but he wasn't. He appears to have been one of the faithful away back yonder, for it is stated that at one time he represented Henderson county in the State Senate and had the distinguished honor of "seconding the nomination of Mr. Pritchard for United States Senator." You see that was way back yonder in 1896, in the days of fusionism when the Republicans and their Populist allies got into the pasture together.

The man who has instituted that suit is Mr. H. S. Anderson, of Henderson, as was stated in the Observer's Asheville special under date of October 24th. Of course, the writer of the Observer's paragraph knew that, but as it will furnish gaiety for the nations it will do well to repeat that the man who seconded Mr. Pritchard's nomination first stirred up a sensation in the Republican household last Saturday by addressing an open letter to the Republicans of the State, as the Asheville special says, "deprecating the acts of the Republican organization in setting up the claim of political kinship to Marion Butler." However the sequel to the open letter is told by the Observer's Asheville correspondent who sent this on Tuesday:

"This afternoon Mr. Anderson instituted suit in the Superior court of Henderson county for $200,000 damages against Republican State Chairman Rollins, Collector H. S. Harkins, District Attorney A. E. Holton and Marshal Millikan. An officer left Hendersonville this afternoon for the purpose of serving summons upon the gentlemen mentioned who, it is understood were taken wholly by surprise, as few were aware that Mr. Anderson contemplated so drastic a move against his political associates. While the complaint in this case has not been filed, friends of Mr .Anderson have given an intimation with reference to the basis of the action. The story is to the effect that, when the contest arose over the position of collector for this, the Fifth internal revenue district, Mr. Anderson, who was a candidate for that position, was given assurances that if he would permit the slate to go through as framed up by the patronage dispensary, he would be given 'something equally as good.' These assurances, so the story goes, were not of the stereotyped variety to which little importance is attached, but were actually given in writing, and Mr. Anderson is said to have withdrawn his application, endorsed the other candidates on the slate and then to have gone on in the even tenor of his way, making his business arrangements and incurring certain obligations in the assurance that this something just as good' would come along in the fullness of time. Since that written contract was made about five years have elapsed, and Mr. Anderson will set up the claim, so it is understood, that not only has the agreement not been kept but no effort has been made to keep it. This action is of course a novel one. While taking its way through the courts the case is expected to develop a large political side, and there is some talk to the effect that the complaint in the case will contribute an intensely interesting chapter of the political annals of the State. Mr. Anderson has engaged as counsel a number of attorneys, some of whom are of State-wide reputation."

Former Senator Anderson seems to be put out with the manner in which a foreigner like former Senator Marion Butler is admitted into the Republican household and is likely to be its leader in North Carolina. However, he would have served his cause better by not bringing his suit, as it will appear that he was a Republican for revenue only. He is disappointed and disgruntled and recalcitrant. When he realized that his associates had proven treacherous and frozen him out, as he might have expected from that source, he ought to have washed his hands of the outfit, but to go and sue for the spoils that he didn't get gives his game away. Nevertheless, how many Republicans would there be in North Carolina if it weren't for pie? The Anderson suit will at least serve the purpose of showing what the Republican party in North Carolina is in business for.

"ROTATE" THE STATE FAIR.

The Charlotte Observer editorially submits the views of a correspondent who suggests as an incentive to the farmers of North Carolina and as a means of instruction and amusement to the whole people, that means be provided to hold the State Fair in the town and county offering the greatest financial inducement. The correspondent thinks that in this manner a sufficient sum could be raised to adequately supplement the $1,500 appropriated by the State and make it worth the while of farmers to take the fair seriously; that prize-winners should be substantially rewarded in money instead of with diplomas and blue ribbons.

The Observer calls the present State Fair an essentially local event at the whole State's expense, representing "little more than a species of graft for Raleigh and Wake and Johnson counties." The rotation plan is successfully carried out in South Carolina, Georgia and other States and the Observer wants to know why not here? But witness how quickly the Mecklenburg proposition draws the fire of Editor Daniels, of the Raleigh News and Observer, He sagely remarks:

"And now they want to put the State Fair on wheels and 'let her roll.' It is fixed to the soil and will 'stay out.' For half a century the people of North Carolina have been in the habit of attending the State Fair at the State Capital, and they'll keep on doing it for an hundred years to come. You can rotate crops and rotate judges, but the State Fair at Raleigh and the National Capital at Washington have a fixed and permanent abode."

The Charlotte Chronicle adds this to the reasons why there is dissatisfaction with Raleigh as the place for the State fair.

"Do the Raleigh people see the handwriting on the wall. The Post, in a long editorial tells of how the livery men, street car people, bootblacks and restaurant keepers skinned the visitors last week. The street railway company charged double fares, livery men charged $10 for four fares and the ham'negg artists doubled their prices. The Post probably forgot to tell us if the dispensary became inflated with the prevailing spirit of graft. It begins to look like Raleigh has forfeited all claim to the State Fair. The fakirs and grafters have done their work."

"Graft in Raleigh, fair week, must have gotten down to a low ebb when a policeman on duty, having a man in charge he had arrested for drunkenness, laid him down to sleep beside the depot fence, for sixty cents—a collection taken up in the crowd and tendered the cop. He took it and went on to other fields of revenue. A Durham man tells us he saw this transaction."

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

"The Deschanos," a thrilling romance by Junius L. Hempstead has been received. This is one of the most popular novels of the year. Mr. Hempstead is a prolific writer, but his books always command a large sale. Publishers: Ben-Franklin Publishing Co., 45 Rose street, New York city.

Edward S. Ellis, the distinguished writer of juvenile books, has just completed a series of three new "indian books."

Deerfoot in the Forest,
Deerfoot on the Prairies,
Deerfoot in the Mountains,

which even surpass in thrilling incident and exciting situation his former works in the same line. The first of the series is, "Deerfoot in the Forest," now offered to the public. The plot consists in the rescue of the two boys, George and Victor Shelton, who had gone on a hunting expedition, not knowing of the Indian uprising there. Deerfoot, a Christianized Indian, hearing of their danger, starts in pursuit and arrives just in time to save their lives. The three friends now try to get back, but meet with many hairbreadth escapes before the never-failing strength and cunning of Deerfoot finally surmounts all obstacles.

Two more stories, "Deerfoot on the Prairies" and "Deerfoot in the Mountains," are to follow for the winter's reading.

The work published by The John C. Winston Company, Philadelphia, is illustrated and issued in elegant form as standard holiday fiction, and the boy of any age from ten to seventeen or eighteen who finds it among his Xmas gifts will be a lucky fellow.

The November number of McClure's Magazine has been received, and as usual it is chock full of entertainment and edification. The table of contents is of exceptionable interest but the features are the first chapters of "Reminiscences of a Long Life," by Carl Schburz, who tells in a most entertaining way the history of his remarkable life and career from his birth in Germany to achievements in war and politics in the United States. Rudyard Kipling also contributes a story "With the Night Mail," and a timely contribution is by Ray Stanard Baker who presents the rate question under the title of "Railroads on Trial." This is enough to give an idea of the November number of McClure's, which can be had at 10 cents per copy or $1 per annum. Address The S. S. McClure Co., Fourth avenue and Twenty-third street, New York.

GRANDEST OF INSTITUTIONS

The Keeley Institute Doing Noble Work in Saving Men From Lives of Misery and Ultimate Destruction—Personal Experience.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I think that the Keeley Institute is the greatest and grandest of all the Institutions that God has ever allowed man to organize, for the very reason that it does all that it claims to do.

I went to Keeley last March, and from the time I left there until now I have never wanted a drink of whiskey. When a man asks me about going to Keeley, I ask him if he wants to quit drinking. If he says "Yes," I tell him to go as fast as he can, for he can quit so easily there. A great many men will say that they are men enough to quit drinking without going to Keeley, but they drink right on. They will not acknowledge their weakness. The way to do is to put aside such ideas, and go to Keeley and then you will know that you are a man, and ought to have gone long before. You may see men that have taken the Keeley Treatment drunk, but don't let that stop you, for they drank because they did not want to quit.

There are many good reasons why a man should go to Keeley. The first being for your own soul's sake and for your family's sake.

The manager, doctor, and attendants at the Greensboro Keeley Institute will do all that they possibly can to make your stay pleasant and beneficial. They treat you like high-toned gentlemen, of which the crowd is generally composed; feed you on the fat of the land, and keep an ever watchful eye over you forever afterwards.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The President should not be deceived into believing that the South will vote as she shouts.—Washington Post.

—It will be a test of the Filipino's advancement if he can keep his face straight while comparing the views of Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan as to this government's attitude toward him.—Washington Post.

—Governor Glenn seems to be of the opinion that most of the inmates of penal institutions in North Carolina are getting only what they deserve, and in this his judgment is excellent.—Charlotte Observer.

—The President says "the Department of Justice has been strained to the utmost in the effort to punish the beef trust." It is because justice is weak or beef too tough? In either case there is danger ahead.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

—We can hardly believe it, yet we see it mentioned in The Raleigh Post that Governor Glenn is being criticised because he did not turn over the arrangements for the proposed breakfast to President Roosevelt at the Governor's mansion and let it proceed, as if there had been no death in the Governor's family. Criticism of this character directed against Governor Glenn is shocking. He had arranged for the function out of his private funds and it was his personal affair. His critics must be devoid of all feeling of humanity. For the good of the State we hope they are few in number.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Holt—The worst thing about a fool is that he doesn't keep his mouth shut. Benson—Well, if he did he wouldn't be a fool, would he?—Smart Set.

—"I can't see why it is that some men will go in raptures over a silly woman," said the fair girl to her chum. "Who's been making love to you now, dear?"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

—"Who is that striking-looking young man that just come in?" "His face is not familiar, but he's either a distinguished musician or a star football player."—Chicago Tribune.

—Singleton—Have you decided what you are going to call the baby, old man? Wedderton—Certainly. I'm going to call him whatever my wife names him.—Chicago Daily News.

—"She was very much affected, was she not, at the bad news?" "I should say so. Her eyes dropped, her voice broke, her face fell, and finally she burst into tears."—Baltimore American.

—"Alas," complained the bibulous one, "my life has been a good deal of a fizzle." "Yes," commented the practical citizen sarcastically, "a good deal of a gin fizzle."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

GIRLHOOD WOMANHOOD MOTHERHOOD

The first lesson that the young girl has of womanhood is usually a painful one. She learns to know what headache means, and backache, and sometimes is sadly borne down by this new experience of life.

All the pain and misery which young girls commonly experience at such a time may, in almost every instance, be entirely prevented or cured by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity. It tones up the general health, and cures headache, backache, nervousness and other consequences of womanly weakness or disease.

The anxious mother of the family oftentimes carries the whole burden of responsibility so far as the home medication of common ailments of the girls or boys are concerned. The cost of the doctor's visits is very often much too great. At such times the mother is invited to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for medical advice, which is given free. Correspondence is held strictly confidential.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, of Buffalo, N. Y., ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"Your wonderful medicine, 'Favorite Prescription,' has helped me greatly in time of suffering," writes Mrs. Minta Wright, of Edwards, Ind. "Last winter I was unable to do my work, was to be confined in February, and a lady in Illinois wrote and told me about your medicine. I used three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' and will say I had the easiest and quickest confinement I ever had. Had three children before, and would suffer from twenty-four to thirty-six hours before birth, but this time only two hours. Have a fine baby girl and she is the most healthy one of all. I am still using the 'Favorite Prescription' as a tonic."

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, October 26.—The cotton market continued active, showing great nervousness. Early fluctuations were very irregular but the market was weak in the later trading and lost all of yesterday's gain. The close was at a net loss of 24 to 27 points. Sales were estimated at 600,000 bales. The opening was weak at unchanged prices to a decline of 15 points with all the active months selling 13 to 15 points net lower on the call under realizing and bear pressure inspired by disappointing cables. There were heavy overnight buying orders, however, and during the first half hour the market worked back to within 3 to 5 points of last night's finals, following which the market ruled very irregular during the late morning. Realization continued very heavy, however, and with certain local bear operators credited with selling on every little bulge the market gradually yielded, and toward the close January sold at 10.44 or 27 points net lower and 31 points below the high level of yesterday. The close was within a point or two of the lowest and barely steady in tone. The strike news from Russia was considered a bear factor and possibly had some influence in Liverpool. The weather was considered favorable but while receipts were slightly above, estimated exports were very full and Southern spot markets ruled steady to firm and generally higher.

Receipts 47,154 bales against 48,625 last week and 52,042 last year. For the week (estimated) 300,000 bales against 319,685 last week and 399,287 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 9,052 bales against 10,712 last year. At Houston 15,220 bales against 10,982 last year.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The Alamance Fair will open at Graham next Tuesday, and the management say that there is every indication that they will have a fair that will measure up with any of the previous excellent fairs held by the association.

Suit has been instituted at Greensboro against the High Point, Randleman, Asheboro & Southern Railway by T. J. Murphy, as counsel for Mrs. Jalie H. Cox, administratrix of Cyrus E. Cox, a railway postal clerk who died from injuries received in a wreck on the road. The suit is for $30,000.

—It is learned at Asheville that C. J. Harris, of Dillsboro, has purchased the well-known Whittier timber tract in western North Carolina, consisting of 78,000 acres. This deal, it is understood, has been made conditionally, as there are several damage suits pending against the property and other points are in litigation including a right of clear title. The consideration is not known.

—Graham, N. C., correspondence: "A week ago to-day a meeting of citizens, composed of business men and farmers, was held in the court house for the purpose of raising the capital stock for a $15,000 cannery. K. Mac Kenzie, representing William Penn Davis, canned goods broker, of Philadelphia, explained the object of the meeting. Much interest was shown and the matter was taken hold of in earnest, and the result is that the $15,000 capital has been subscribed and the cannery will be built and ready for operation next season."

—A Salisbury correspondent writes: "Mr. John W. Glover, who is traveling with a carnival company, is here for a few days and is promoting a novelty factory which he thinks will be built soon. One of the largest stockholders in the Empire Novelty Company, of New York, is coming South, and is going to do business somewhere. Mr. Glover has taken stock in the new business. He has interested many Salisbury people in the venture and they have made subscriptions. If it goes through, and it will, it is then the only factor of its kind in the South. The factory will make wagons, toys and small things and will start January, 1906, with $20,000 capital."

—Charlotte Observer, Oct. 26th: The universal verdict of those who have attended the present fair is that it is the best in the history of Charlotte. Yesterday was "Charlotte day" and the largest crowd in years was present. The number has been variously estimated from 10,000 to 15,000 and it would be exceedingly difficult to give any definite figure. The records at the ticket office show 10,000 paid admissions. The exhibits this year, while not the largest that have ever been displayed, are conceded to be the best. The farm products are unusually fine and Mr. B. S. Davis, one of the judges of the poultry exhibit, declared yesterday that the fowls were far above those of any previous year. The same may be said of the livestock.

—Charlotte Observer, Oct. 26th: Mr. Wade H. Harris, editor of The Evening Chronicle, went out to the fair grounds yesterday afternoon to round up his children, and after he got home he made a painful discovery. One of those long folding purses that fitted snugly in his hip pocket was missing. In other words the editor of The Chronicle, who has written about pickpocket incidents galore in his long journalistic career, is at last himself a victim of the pickpocket. The looting of the editor, he believes, occurred in the jam attending the derailment of a street car at the curve near the pavilion. His friend got $18 in cash, a lot or receipts for building material and a water color drawn by his daughter. The latter he valued highly, also the purse, which was a souvenir of the St. Louis Exposition, and, as to the cash, it make him weep to think about it.

—The Governor has refused to grant two pardons, as follows: W. L. Mitchell, of Mecklenburg who, at the June term, 1903, plead guilty to a charge of bigamy and was sentenced to the public roads for seven years. "The prisoner having admitted in open court that he deliberately married a second time, knowing he had another wife living, does not commend himself to favoable consideration and, no good reason being shown why his sentence should be interfered with, "I must refuse his application for pardon," J. D. Phillips, of Rowan county, at the September term, 1904, was convicted of larceny and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. "While I deeply feel for wife of prisoner, who is an invalid," says the Governor, "I cannot find any legal reason for interfering with the sentence of the court. The prisoner pleaded guilty and the sentence is not excessive. Neither judge or solicitor recommends this pardons."

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. W. P. Rose, general manager of the Composite Tile Company, of Raleight, spent yesterday in the city, making arrangements for the establishment of a branch for the manufacture of tile here. This company has the State's rights for the manufacture of the roofing tile invented by Mr. Frank McM. Sawyer, of this city. In speaking with an Observer reporter last evening Mr. Rose states that the plant here will be ready for operation within six weeks. It will have an output of 25 squares of 10 square feet each, a day. In speaking of the plans of his company Mr. Rose said that eventually it will establish branches in every town of more than 5,000 inhabitants in the State, this to save freight on the product. One plant is in operation now—the one at Raleigh, which will soon have a capacity of 500 squares a day. Every plant in the State will be under one management, but each town will be required to subscribe to stock to the amount of half what the plant in that particular town will cost.

—A dispatch from Winston-Salem on Wednesday says: A big indignation meeting of the Winston Tobacco Board of Trade was held here this afternoon and stenuous protests were entered against the Southern Railway on account of the inefficiency in moving the tobacco from the tobacco sections. Thousands of dollars are lost by tobacco being damaged in the depots. No trains were run Monday and Tuesday from the biggest tobacco section. At this season of the year the tobacco sales should be blocked but are only selling half the usual quantity. Farmers are being forced to take their tobacco to smaller markets and sell it at less prices or lose all. The situation is very alarming. President Smith was ordered to send a telegram to the chairman of the corporation commission, requesting him to come upon the scene at once. The retail merchants scene at once. The Retail Merchants' Association and Winston Board of Trade have called a joint meeting for Friday night to enter further protests. Letters have been written to the railway officials at Washington, Raleigh and other places.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Wilmington Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Wilmington citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough izens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Wilmington by Doan's Kidney Pills:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front stret and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt, a valuable remedy for backache."

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

OLD AGE.

Some people at fifty call themselves old, and really appear so, while others at seventy seem active, vigorous and young.

A reporter of the Star happened in the store of Robert R. Bellamy, our local druggist, the other evening, and this subject was brought up. Said Mr. Bellamy: "It is a fact and we see it illustrated every day right here in Wilmington. It is not years; old age does not begin at any set time, but it is loss of vital force that makes a person old. A severe sickness, weakened digestion, thin blood, or poor circulatoin soon starts vitality on the wane and then a person rapidly ages.

"On the other hand," continued Mr. Bellamy, "if the people of Wilmington only knew how our cod liver preparation, Vinol, wards off old age, we would not have clerks enough in our store to supply the demand.

"You see, Vinol contains all the vitality making, body-building principles of cod liver oil, but without a drop of the system-clogging oil. It strengthens digestive organs, makes rich, red blood, repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline and replaces weakness with strength.

"One good customer of Vinol, who is seventy-eight years of age, says he would not take $1,000 for the good it has done him, and we wish every aged person in Wilmington would try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails." Robert R. Bellamy.

THE YELLOW FEVER RECORD

By Wire to The Morning Star

New Orleans, October 26.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. today:

New cases today, 3; total cases to date, 3,378.

Deaths, none; total deaths to date, 439.

New focus, 1.

Cases under treatment, 42.

Cases discharged, 2,900.

All interest in the yellow fever situation was lost in the enthusiasm over the President's visit but the low record was gratifying just the same. With only three cases, no deaths and 42 cases under treatment, the work is regarded as practically over. There will be some radical changes in the marine hospital corps of officers stationed here tomorrow, a large portion of them being ordered to return to their regular stations. Passed assistant Surgeons Blue, Richardson and Corpul will be among those who will remain here a week or two longer in order to clean up the work they have had in hand.

Increase in Pensacola.

Pensacola, Oct. 26.—The yellow fever situation does not show any improvement over the previous day but on the other hand an unexpectedly large number of cases developed, the largest number to be reported this week. The summary.

New cases today, 12; total cases to date, 517.

Deaths today, 2; total cases to date, 72.

Discharged, 365.

Under treatment, 80.

Cutter Patrol Discontinued.

Washington, October 26.—The yellow fever situation in the South is regarded at the treasury as so well in hand that orders have just been dispatched for the withdrawal of the revenue cutter patrol at all Gulf points except at Pensacola, and the two vessels still there will soon be withdrawn.

WARM WIRELETS.

A statue of field Marshal Von Moltke, the gift of the army to the German people, was unveiled in Berlin yesterday, the one hundred and fifth anniversary of his birth. The unveiling took place in the presence of Emperor William, the imperial family, all the great personages of state, and many thousands of people.

The dispatch boat Dolphin has been assigned by the Navy Department as the vessel which will carry the President and party to Washington from Hampton Roads when he arrives there from New Orleans on the West Virginia. She was reported to the Navy Department yesterday to be en route from Highland light for the Cheasapeake.

At Pittsburg yesterday Edward G. Cunliffe, the Adams Express robber, went into court and pleaded guilty to two charges of larceny, representing a theft of $101,000. Sentence was suspended until Saturday. Cunliffe's action caused much surprise as neither the Adams Express Company or Pinkertons' Detective Agency were represented in court. He has no counsel and the belief is growing that Cunliffe is mentally unbalanced.

At Cincinnati yesterday the motion of the defendants in the receivership suit against the Little Kanawha Syndicate to quash the service, was granted by United States Circuit Judge Richards, who at the same time abrogated the temporary injunction against the sale of the property of the syndicate. This left pending a motion for the appointment of a receiver and the attorneys later expressed a desire to clear up the matter. Judge Richards dismissed the whole matter on the ground of lack of jurisdiction.

In New York yesterday a verdict of $80,241 against Joseph Leiter, Joseph H. Hoadley and Cyrus F. Judson was returned in the suit brought against these three defendents by William H. Franklin and George I. Scott. The plaintiffs claimed that as members of the firm of Franklin, Scott & Co., in April, 1902, they lost $65,800 by carrying stock for a pool in International Power Company's stock which included Messrs. Judson, Leiter and Hoadley. They sued for recovery of the full amount with interest, which the jury granted.

AWFUL TRAGEDY IN SAVANNAH

By Wire to The Morning Star

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 26.—E. A. Moore a street conductor, this afternoon in an altercation with a passenger, drew a heavy revolver and fired three shots. The first shot went wild, the second struck and killed Mrs. F. F. Wheeler and the third went through the thigh of C. R. Seckinger, the passenger involved in the altercation. Mrs. Wheeler was sitting on her front steps. The bullet severed her jugular vein. Mrs. Jane E. Fairchilds jumped from the car, as did the other passengers when the shooting began. Mrs. Fairchilds sustained a broken shoulder from her fall.

Moore was arrested. It is alleged he was drinking.

MILLIONAIRE SENTENCED.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, Oct. 26.—The ninth correctional tribunal of the Seine today sentenced Elliott Fitch Shepard, son of late Colonel Elliot F. Shepard, of New York, and a grandson of the late W. H. Vanderbilt, to three months' imprisonment and $120 fine and to pay $4,000 damages to the parents of Madeline Marduel who was killed by Shepard's automobile at St. Ouen, April 24. The imprisonment part of the sentence will not be carried out while awaiting the future course of procedure on the part of Mr. Shepard who was present in court.

MR. ROOSEVELT DEFIES FEVER

Spent Nine Strenuous Hours In New Orleans Amid Wildest Enthusiasm

POPULACE UNCONTROLABLE

Such Immense Crowd Crushed About President Till He Couldn't Speak —Stirring Scenes—Sailed Last Night for Washington.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, Oct. 26.—At the end of nine strenuous hours of varied entertainment in New Orleans, closing a pleasant trip through the South, President Roosevelt at 6:30 o'clock tonight, boarded the lighthouse tender Magnolia and began his return journey to Washington.

No newspaper representative accompanied the President on the boat and he will be out of touch with the world throughout the night, but daylight tomorrow is expected to bring news of his successful transfer to the armored cruiser West Virginia, which lies at anchor off the mouth of the Mississippi river to receive him and carry him on towards the capital. For four days the President will be off American soil but by wireless telegraphy, it is promised, he will be in communication with the shore.

The President's stay in New Orleans was made a testimonial of popular esteem and of grateful recognition for the service which he rendered the city in its struggle against yellow fever. The densely crowded streets, the elaborate decorations, the wild applause that greeted the President along the route of the parade, the enthusiasm with which his address to the multitude in LaFayette Square was received and the remarkable demonstration in his honor at the luncheon made the day replete with cordial welcome to the nation's executive head.

The President was compelled to abandon one public address before he had got well started on it. It was contemplated that the military and civic parade should pass in review before the President at the city hall, but the crowd which gathered at this point was so tremendous that neither the police nor the troops were able to move it and the President foreseeing a possible panic, finally gave up the attempt to speak and left the platform. The crowd jammed St. Charles street all the way from Poydras street to Ninth street and it spread over LaFayette Square, almost from St. Charles to Camp street. Probably 50,000 people were gathered in and around the stand from which the President was to have delivered the address. When the President decided to abandon his effort, he shouted to the throng to go home and be good citizens and then disappeared into the Mayor's parlors well nigh exhausted. He said that the reception was the greatest that he had had since he start ed on his trip.

The demonstration at the luncheon was scarcely less exuberant. When the President entered the superbly decorated dining hall the 625 banqueters rose and gave way to frantic cheers. Every reference of Governor Blanchard, Mayor Behrman, and President Sanders of the Progressive Union, to the guest, brought forth a perfect storm of cheering, and when the President rose he had great difficulty in speaking. Every thought he uttered was the signal for an extraordinary exhibition of enthusiasm and as his speech dealt almost entirely with local subjects and had special reference to the fight against yellow fever, the banquet developed into unceasing laudation of the President while he was on his feet.

An immense crowd packed Gravier and St. Charles streets as the dinner ended and the appearance of the President on the way to the river provoked thunderous applause. As the Magnolia left the landing, a presidential salute was fired while the din of hundreds of steam whistles, mingled with the lusty cheering of acres of people who had collected on the wharf.

From the moment of his arrival early in the forenoon until he said farewell from the deck of the Magnolia at night, the President was constantly in the lime-light. The crowded programme gave him no opportunity for rest, but he expressed keen enjoyment in his visit. Nowhere did the President see the slightest evidence of the existence of yellow fever, but he saw on every hand immense gatherings of cordial and contented people.

On the President's arrival he was taken aboard the commodious ocean going Southern Pacific steamer Comus. On board the steamer were 400 of the leading men and women of the city. On it also were Governor Blanchard and his staff, brilliant in gold lace; Dr. White, who fought the good fight as the government's representative against the fever, together with all his surgeons in full uniform; officers of the army and navy; Mayor Behrman, and leading Federal, State and city officials.

It was just 9 o'clock when the train ran into the docks and there was an enthusiastic demonstration from the steamer as the President left the train and walked to the ship. The Comus headed up stream and ran a few miles above the city, then turned and came down, passing along the whole front of New Orleans. Going down as far as Port Chalmette, the Comus headed back to the city. As the vessel neared the Harrison Steel Sheds, aflame with patriotic color, the air was rent with the blasts of steam whistles and the thunder of a presidential salute. The President looked out on a sea of people gathered on the river front to greet him.

When the boat landed the President was ecorted ashore, and the parade got under way under the general marshalship of Colonel John P. Sullivan. The Confederate Veterans held the right of the line followed by the Sons of Veterans and the Spanish-American war veterans.

On the streets the scenes were almost the same as those during the carnival season. The weather was ideal and though there still exist some quarantines, thousands of citizens of Louisiana and Mississippi had poured into New Orleans to swell the local population in a twin celebration of the President's visit and the triumph of science over the fever scourge. Never before has New Orleans been more elaborately decorated. From every store and residence along the two miles of the route there blazed the familiar red, white and blue in graceful festoons about the well known features of the guest of the day. The flag of the nation flew everywhere while thousands of men who had voted against him wore the President's picture in the lapels of their coats.

The route of the procession lay down one side of Canal to Claiborne, thence back over the other side to Camp, up Camp to Calliope and thence down St. Charles past the Lee monument to the city hall.

While it could not be arranged to set aside any portion of the programme, especially for the negro race, it had been provided that the colored population should gather in Canal street, between Liberty and Claiborne. There the Iroquois, the exclusive negro social club of New Orleans is located. All the men of high standing of the race were gathered here on a broad platform erected in front of the building together with the negro school children. The four squares there was a solid mass of colored people. As the President appeared they gave way to their emotions and the President's pleasure was mirrored in his smiling face. One of the most stirring scenes of the day was that presented at the Lee monument. From its apex there ran broad streamers of red, white and blue, while on the broad circular mound that supports the marble column on which stands the heroic figure of the military commander whose genuis the President has so frequently testified, there were gathered 7,000 of the public school children of the city each provided with a tiny American flag.

Long before the parade had neared the city hall, the people began to congregate there and such a dense, immovable crowd was never before seen in this city of annual crowds. They jammed right up to the city hall gallery, and blocked the way for the parade. Half a hundred policemen, mounted and on foot, labored for an hour to make a clear space so that the President's carriage could come up to the entrance, but it was impossible, though many heads were cracked in the efforts and dozens of obstreperous persons were thrown in jail.

The moment the President was recognized a tremendous cheer went up, and the crowd, densely packed as it was, surged forward and threatened to crush in part of the grandstand. Then the President realized that an accident was imminent, and if the crowd was not soon dispersed, there might be serious trouble. He urged Mayor Behrman to introduce him immediately, which was done simply, though the Mayor's voice was drowned in the hubbub.

The President climbed up on the railing before which he was to speak, supported by the Mayor, though he kept his balance admirably. He waved his hand to the crowd and the enthusiasm broke forth with redoubled vigor. He urged the crowd to keep still, and called their attention to the fact that many women were caught in the jam, and might be injured. Each utterance of his, though unheard by the mass of humanity, evoked a cheer and waving of handkerchiefs and parasols, and then the President tried to deliver a short speech. It was impossible and he realized the futility of it.

"There seems to be two or three people in the streets," he started, when a voice interrupted with the question "Did you have this crowd in Little Rock?"

"That's all right," answered the President. Stay right there now," he added addressing the crowd which was beyond control.

The Mayor attempted to secure silence and the President began again:

"My fellow countrymen, give me a chance," whereat there was a tremendous roar of applause and a voice shouted "We will give you one and we will give you another."

Again the President started:

"My fellow countrymen, I appreciate more than I can say this greeting and it is beyond the power of a human being to acknowledge it by speaking, for you could not hear him." (Greet applause).

"And now you have shown such extraordinary qualities throughout this dreadful Summer that I want you to show your capacity for self-government. (Tremendous cheering) and that means don't jam. (Laughter and applause).

"And I want the crowd—I want you all to open out. I am only going to wish you well, and then I am going to go on because you can't possibly hear me and you already see me. (Great applause) and that's all that is open to us."

The President insisted that there was danger that some one, especially the women and children, might be hurt and that he would not attempt to speak further. Then he said:

"I only want to say that I will make a longer speech later, but I do want to say how grateful I am for your coming out and how grateful I am to the sacred veterans of the great war and my own comrades of the small war, and I want to thank the National Guard of Louisiana, cavalry, infantry, artillery and the naval militia. I am proud of them and it is a pleasure to see them today. Now, I am going away and all of you be good and go home."

There was a tremendous roar from the crowd as the President disappeared in the Mayor's hall.

New York, Oct. 26.—The E. H. Harriman special train with Miss Alice Roosevelt on board, arrived in Jersey City over the Erie Railroad tonight at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Harriman, and the members of his family left the train at Arden, N. Y., where Mr. Harriman's country place is located. The only members of the original Taft party who came through on the train were Miss Roosevelt and her traveling companions, Misses Boardman and McMillan, Congressman Gillett, of New York, and J. C. McKnight. Miss Roosevelt was driven directly to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, where she will spend the night, leaving for Washington at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning if sufficiently rested by that time. Members of the party denied that Miss Roosevelt had been sick during the trip.

ST. PETERSBURG PANIC STRICKEN

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED

General Appearance of City is That of Siege—People Fleeing for Safety—Republic Cannot Save Russia From Anarchy.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—1:15 P. M.—Russia is practically isolated to-day from the rest of the continent of Europe as the international train service on all the lines has virtually ceased. The tie up in the interior is more complete than yesterday. The only trains running are operated by the railroad battalions.

The strike contagion is spreading. All classes of workmen are organizing sympathetic strikes and industrial life in the country is coming to a standstill. The situation cannot long continue. Either the workmen will soon be starved into submission, or pillage with military interference and bloodshed on a large scale are bound to follow.

At Moscow 600 cabmen have already fought the strikers whom they charge with taking the bread out of their mouths. In many cities, especially at Moscow, the question of food is becoming extremely serious. Collisions between troops and strikers are reported to have occurred at several places.

At Ekaterinoslav a regular pitched battle between the soldiers and strikers was fought, and the city was left in darkness, but as a rule the revolutionary leaders are keeping their men in hand.

The whole country is becoming alarmed and in St. Petersburg an incipient panic prevails. The boats and the Finnish trains, now the only means of egress, are crowded with people fleeing abroad. The situation here has grown much worse over night. The ranks of the 50,000 workmen from the mills and factories who joined the strikers yesterday were increased by 30,000 more this morning. All the employes of the port, 4,000 in number, walked out and 12,000 other men from the steel works left work in a body.

The inhabitants of St. Petersburg awoke to find the capital resembling a beleagured city. The shops in the Vasiliostrov district and in all the suburbs are closed, windows are boarded and barred and mounted patrols are to be seen everywhere in the streets. Except in the heart of the city, women and children are afraid to venture out. Workmen are gathering at all the places frequented in the day's of Father Gapon, but they are quiet and Cossacks have had no provocation to interfere.

The general appearance of the town is menacing. The prices of food have gone up and the supply of beef is only sufficient for three days, but there are ample supplies of wheat and rye for two months.

The Emperor and the court at Peterhof are supplied by a warship from St. Petersburg. All the families who can afford it have hastened to lay in supplied to stand a siege. The suffering falls the heaviest on the poor who live from hand to mouth.

All the St. Petersburg schools were closed to-day and the children were sent home with instruction not to return until their parents think it safe to do so.

The great strike promises to delay and possibly interrupt the negotiations for the new Russian loan. The bankers are not disposed to close with the government until the situation has cleared up.

Czar Makes Concessions.

As the result of a series of special ministerial councils under the Presidency of Count Witte, held to adopt measures to deal with the situation, the new national assembly law and laws granting practical freedom of the press and of speech and meeting, will be promulgated forthwith.

Upon the peremptory demand of Prince Hilkoff, the Minister of Railroads, the budget covering the remuneration of railroad employes will be revised to meet the promises made last Spring. Unless this was done the Prince announced that he would resign. Count Witte, even in advance of the promulgation of his formal appointment as premier, completely diminates the situation.

Interesting details have been learned by the Associated Press regarding Count Witte's interview with Emperor Nicholas last week at which it was agreed that the time had come to limit the autocratic power and give the people a real share of the government of the empire. The Emperor asked Count Witte to speak frankly and after listening to the statesman's expose of the situation he appeared to be utterly unnerved by the deplorable state of affairs and cried out that he was weary of the struggle and felt like leaving all and fleeing to Barustadt, hence probably the origin of the report that the Emperor was going aboard. Count Witte, however, told the Emperor that in his opinion not oven a republic could now save Russia from anarchy.

It was the Emperor's duty to the country and the people to face the situation by meeting their wishes, namely to abrogate the autocratic power and grant a constitution by creating a ministry responsible alike to the crown and the representatives of the nation. The Emperor finally accepted, requesting Count Witte to draft a project which in skeleron form he approved last Sunday when the Count agreed to accept the premiership on condition that he could name the ministers and that they should report to His Majesty only through himself as head of the cabinet.

SHOT AND KILLED HIS FRIEND.

Young Man Killed at Columbia For Slapping Another's Face.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 26.—A special to The Observer from Columbia, S. C., says that Wilmer Mitchell a prominent young man of Leesville, S. C., shot and killed James Trotter, his friend, in the union station there at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of two thousand people. Mitchell surrendered, giving as his reasons for killing Trotter that the latter slapped him in the face.

CENSUS COTTON REPORT.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Washington, Oct. 26.—The director of the census has issued the following statement regarding the cotton reports:

"In order to expedite the publication of the cotton ginning reports, the census office has this year undertaken the experiment of compiling them from telegraphic reports from the county agents, using the individual ginners' card subsequently received by mail to verify the telegraphic summaries. In this way it has been possible to expedite the publication of the semi-monthly reports at least one week. For instance, last year's report of cotton ginned to October 18th, corresponding to the one issued yesterday, was not made public until November 3rd. In order to present this earlier report, it has been found absolutely necessary to change the hour of publication from 12 o'clock noon to 2 P. M., which will hereafter be the uniform hour for making the report public. The bulk of the telegrams from our county agents are not received until the morning of the compilation, the agents being given until the night of the preceeding day to complete their canvasses and file their messages. Some of these agents are located so far from telegraph offices, that their reports cannot be received in this office before noon, or thereabouts, of the day of publication. These telegrams must be arranged by counties and the information listed on cards before the compilation by adding machines can be done. It is therefore a physical impossibility to compile the complete report earlier than 2 P. M., and I do not believe that any similar statistical compilation has ever been accomplished with greater celerity. The entire compilation is carried on in a secluded room, constructed for the purpose, lighted only by skylight and guarded from the outside. No clerk is allowed to depart from this room and no one to enter it, until the report has been placed upon the wires. Upon the completion of the compilation the report is sealed in this room and delivered in person to the director at the door, who takes it directly to the telegraph operator. While I have the utmost confidence in all of those engaged in this compilation, I believe these precautions are necessary for their protection, as well as my own, and that of the general public."

NORTH CAROLINA SYNOD.

Interesting Sessions at Red Springs—Meet Next at Statesville.

The second day's session of the North Carolina Synod at Red Springs was marked by an increased attendance. Rev. W. R. Coppedge opened the day's work with devotional exercises and the annual Synodical celebration of the Lord's Supper was observed, the ministers having been the venerable Dr. Hill, of Maxton, and Rev. J. M. Wharey, of Mooresville. The communion sermon was a masterpiece of religious oratory and was preached by Dr. J. M. Wells, of Wilmington. Dr. Wells took as his text: "Unto you therefore which believe He is precious." First Peter ii. 7.

Memorials were read as follows: W. R. McClellan, of Statesville, by C. M. Monroe, of Hickory; H. D. Lequex, by W. J. Tidball, of Taylorsville, and Colin Shaw, of Ivanhoe, by A. McFadyen, of Clarkton.

Statesville was decided as the next place of meeting.

Dr. W. W. Moore, president of Union Theological Seminary, presented that great work, and Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Davidson College, spoke in behalf of that cause.

The report on Church and Christian Education was read by Dr. J. B. Shearer, of Davidson College, chairman. All the church schools and colleges, male and female, are in a more prosperous condition than ever before.

The evening session was devoted to Missions, a feature being a strong sermon by Dr. G. W. Painter, lately returned from China.

NEW ENGLAND BANKS SWINDLED

Two Sharpers Got $10,500 With Worthless Collateral.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Boston, Oct. 26.—Charged with the larceny of $4,000 from the Puritan Trust Company, this city, Aubrey L. Rice, was arrested today. The police charge that on July 31 Rice deposited with the trust company stock of the Old Norfolk and Western railroad company which had become worthless through the reorganization of the company, as the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company. Rice was given credit for $13,000 for the stock, and it is alleged that he drew out $4,000 in cash.

When the alleged fraud was discovered Rice and a man named Gilman had left the city, and had gone to San Francisco, where they were arrested at the request of the Providence, R. I., police who charged them with having secured $6,500 in Providence by similar means to those employed here. They were taken back to Providence and after filing a demurrer, they were released on bail of $3,000 each. Rice then came to this city and was located by the Boston police, who placed him under arrest.

SIX PEOPLE BURNED TO DEATH

Bad Hotel Fire at Hot Springs Yesterday Morning.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 26.—Six bodies have been taken from the ruins of a railroad hotel, located at the corner of Elm and Olive streets here which was gutted by fire early to-day. Of these, two unidentified are charred beyond recognition. The dead are Harry Bradley, a waiter; Edward Snyder, a porter; Mrs. Mack, a musician; A. L. Mann, a railroad conductor, believed to be from Denver; two unknown men.

The hotel is a two story frame building containing thirty rooms, all but one of which was occupied by from one to four persons. The hotel was patronized by invalids and cripples who were under treatment. The fire is believed to have been caused by an exploding lamp. There was only one narrow exit, that being a stairway and dozens were compelled to jump from the second story, in many instances in their night clothes. One man, Fred. Owerson, of Hot Springs, was probably fattally injured.

INJURED ON THE WHARF.

White Man From Country Said He Was Set Upon by Negro.

Last night the police had a call to the lower yards of the A. C. L., near Mr. H. L. Vollers' store, on Nutt street. At the same time Dr. D. W. Bulluck had been called from the yardmaster's office. When the physician and the police arrived they found J. T. Moore, a white man, 31 years of age, from Moore's Landing, Pender county. He had a scalp wound to the skull on the right side of his head about two inches long. He said that he was on his way with a negro to the wharf of the Geo. L. Morton Company to board the steamer Whitlock or to see if it was gone. When in a dark place, near Mr. Voller's store, he says the negro, who had been showing him around all the afternoon, demanded his money and upon refusing it, the negro shot him.

Dr. Bulluck ordered the man sent up to Bulluck's drug store and there the wound was dressed. The man was drinking to some extent and Dr. Bulluck said the wound was inflicted with a knife or some like instrument instead of a pistol. Moore says he would recognize the negro if he should see him again but doesn't know his name; that he works at the Front street market. After the wound was dressed the man was taken to Croom's boarding house, where he is stopping. Dr. Bulluck says the same man was in his office yesterday morning and that he is suffering with locomotor ataxia. His wounds are not serious.

GALE SWEEPS ALONG COAST.

Low Streets of Norfolk Flooded—Fears for Shipping.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., October 26.—The first real gale of the season swept over the Virginia-Carolina coast tonight from the northeast and at Cape Henry, before the force of the blow prostrated the government's telegraphic system, a maximum wind velocity of 52 miles an hour was reported. At Norfolk the rate was much less, but the blow outside drove the tide back into Hampton Roads and the Elizabeth river. Low streets along the water front were flooded and street railway traffic was tied up in some portions of the city by the flood. The east end trestle of the city line was under water and all travel to Newport News was suspended by the tide's going over the Tanner's Creek bridge.

No reports of injury to shipping have been received, but a message over the government wires from Little Island Life Saving station reports an unknown steamship anchored one mile off shore to the north of that point. The craft seems to have deranged steering gear. Hampton Roads is sheltering scores of storm bound vessels and only the larger boats went out on their regular trips tonight.
